

JAMAICA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

GUIDELINES FOR ADMISSIONS

SECTION A

Period of Processing

Applications for the Jamaica Theological Seminary (JTS) are continuously processed throughout the year. New students may begin classes at the beginning of either semester in the academic year.

Forms and Documents

There are official application forms and documents developed by the institution for its own purpose, which each applicant must have completed and submitted by the relevant persons. These are:

1. Application Form
2. Pastoral Reference Form (normally a yellow form)
3. Professional Reference Form (normally a blue form)
4. Academic Reference Form (normally a green form)
5. Student Health Form

These documents along with a brochure, cover letter and a current rate sheet comprise the Application Package. Application packages are pre-prepared by the Admissions Office and made available from the front desk of the Seminary. These packages may be mailed to interested persons based on requests (both locally and overseas).

The following documents must be current:

1. Pastoral Reference Form
2. Health Form and
3. Statement of Conversion,

N.B. Applicants who may have already submitted these documents and who deferred their admissions must, upon re-application to JTS, submit any specified forms or statements as of the new date.
